Jane Pretty Teacher Librarian, Waniora Public & Sharon McGuinness Teacher Librarian, Thirroul Public
Jane & Sharon were awarded the John H. Lee Memorial Award for 2011 by ASLA NSW. The John H. Lee Memorial Award is "awarded to an individual or team of educators who are able to demonstrate excellence in leadership in innovative and collaborative teaching practice through the integration of learning technologies." Jane & Sharon will take you through their Guided Enquiry Program, Seacliff COS GI Project.

Margaret Cooper Teacher Librarian, Shellharbour Public & prior President of ISLA. Margaret will share her expertise of OASIS. This is your chance to ask your questions.

Georgia Phillips co-founder, The Hub: Campaign for Quality School Libraries in Australia, Committee Member School Library Assoc. NSW, ISLA member. Georgia is a retired Teacher Librarian & is a current marker for CSU Teacher Librarianship courses. She is a tireless lobbyist for the profession.

Steve Rowland Steve will bring us up-to-date with Raeco products & have suggestions for library solutions & renewal.

Paul Macdonald Owner of the well-known Children's Bookshop, in Beecroft.
"Paul has a Master of Education, working almost 20 years as a teacher of Upper Primary and Secondary. He has won numerous awards in teaching such as a Quality Teacher Award in 2002, The Premier's English Scholarship in 2004 and awards for his co-ordination of Regional Shakespearean Festivals. His interests include the development of literacy with a particular interest in reading for gifted children, Boys' Literacy and books for adolescents. When Paul is not talking books, he can be rather boring."

Paul kindly makes himself available for our conferences & his presentations are always popular. Paul will talk about what is current in books for children and young adults. His recommendations & assessment are well-informed.

Susie Brown Susie describes herself as a writer & teacher. For as long as she can remember, writing has been part of Susie's life. As a child, when asked what she wanted to be when she grew up, her answer was either a teacher or a writer. She grew up to be both.
Susie has been a classroom teacher since 1992 and a teacher-librarian since 2007. She has written extensively for both the educational and trade market since 2002.
Her co-author, Margaret Warner, taught in adjoining classrooms for much of the 1990s and developed the story, Lone Pine together.
